Cool Cocktail Bars at Hot Hotels

Although a worthy cause, seeking out some of the coolest cocktail bars at hotels around the world is not an easy task. The competition is stiff, which actually gives libation-loving travelers a lot to cheer about! From New York to Bali, with coffee-inspired brewed cocktails and insect snacks in between, here are eleven hotel bars that we think have it all: style, unique offerings, fine spirits, standout mixologists, and (most importantly) a menu with good strong cocktails.

Hotels in New York City have an annual battle to be crowned the coolest rooftop bar for summer cocktails. Penthouse discothèque Le Bain is a strong contender, with a plunge pool on the dance floor and a crêperie on a “grass” covered roof. The 18th-floor hotspot has sweeping 360-degree views of Manhattan and the Hudson River. Gather your friends and order a pitcher of one of the bar’s refreshing cocktails, such as the Frozen Grapefruit Gimlet with Belvedere, Campari, grapefruit, and lemon. If you love beer and ping pong, drink up at the open air Biergarten (glass enclosed in winter), which serves traditional German sausages and pretzels.

The Speakeasy, Maxwell Mansion, Lake Geneva, WI

Recently renovated Maxwell Mansion on Lake Geneva is nestled in what those in the know call “the Newport of the west.” The glamorous 19th century manor offers its sophisticated clientele a clandestine 1920s Speakeasy Lounge with cabaret performances and an 1880s Apothecary Bar in honor of its first owner Dr. Philip Maxwell. Guests access Speakeasy by knowing

This award-winning Kimpton gastro-lounge in Chi-town's River North area was named a top hotel bar by USA Today. Sable Kitchen & Bar houses one of the region's largest selections of amber spirits and hosts weekly "Whiskey Wednesdays" offering special flights. Cocktails are infused with liqueurs, fresh juices, and housemade bitters and syrups. The 20 plus seasonal pre-prohibition cocktails include the drink-worthy Kentucky Grazer with Buffalo Trace, Pimm's, mint, lemon juice and celery bitters. Head Bartender Mike Ryans shares, "We believe that integrity and hospitality can go hand in hand. Our cocktails are inspired by classic and contemporary cocktail structures, and draw influences from both historical and modern culinary applications." www.sablechicago.com
